

THE PALATKA NEWS AND ADVERTISER

Entered at the Palatka postoffice as available matter of the second class.

Published at Palatka, Fla., on Fridays by RUSSELL & VICKERS.

Wm. A. Russell, Editor.

COLD BUSINESS AT HOME.

A police court tragedy in a northern city, as reported in the papers recently, revealed the wreck of a home. The wife said: "I do not know whether my husband loves me or not. He has neglected to tell me since we were married."

Did you ever meet one of those husbands who boasts that he is cold business in all his nets, and that sentiment is folly, a thing all very well for children, but not for grown-ups? He tells you that his home is run on a "business basis." There is enough to eat and wear; three meals a day and good beds to sleep in. He boasts about it, because he feels that he is, in some mysterious way, a philanthropist.

There is enough to eat and to wear in the average prison for that matter.

In few homes does the art of the courting period last. There is much in life besides carresses and kisses. But the man who is well mated and who would be happy is proud to be his wife's lover through life. No, he doesn't have to talk sugary nothings, or to bill and coo. There are ways of showing affection and sympathy and esteem that work very well into everyday life. You do not have to advertise the home where true love abides. It shows in the face of the wife, in the smiles of the children, in the flowers by the walk, in the general atmosphere of sunshine that permeates the place. It isn't a matter of income. True happiness and life a week, or even less, often travel hand in hand.

No! The man who stops loving-making when once a woman leaves his name is a swindler. His is a chilling carelessness that stings worse than blows, and no matter how the home is wrecked he can not evade responsibility in the eyes of the world.

"I do not know whether my husband loves me or not. He has neglected to tell me since we were married."

That is a terrible indictment.

SOME QUEER STATISTICS.

The census department makes some queer discoveries. One of the queerest is the discovery that it is a mark of lower intelligence to understate one's age. Lovely woman, how do you like that?

It has been found that this disposition is stronger in the negro than in the white, and in foreign-born than in native whites. The census report also comes out flat-footed with the statement that the female is more prone to this class of deception than is the male. The illiterate, however, goes over to the other side when he gets old enough, and a gross exaggeration in the number of contemporaries of this class is reported.

The median age, that which divides the population into halves, is 22.55 years. One hundred years ago it was 15.37. The median age in cities is 24 years greater than that in rural districts. This does not mean that longevity is greater in cities. It is explained by the greater number of births in the country, and by the fact that more adults than children migrate to the city. The Biblical "three score and ten" still has a pretty large peg upon which to hang its claims as only twenty-three in every 100 have passed that mark.

The president's "faced suicide" proposition is not to be laughed out of court, as some have been inclined to think for the proportion of children over 1 year and under 5 years is considerably smaller than in 1890; also much smaller than the ratios for most European countries.

WHISKY NO TOWN BUILDER.

Whisky selling as a business bringer and a town builder has certainly proven a miserable failure so far as Madison is concerned. This alleged town builder and business getter has certainly had every opportunity to prove its worth in our town. There has been no lack of either quantity or quality here, yet with all the magnetism of our alluring whiskey shops neighboring dry towns are outstripping us in growth daily. We don't see anything that Madison has gained by the sale of whiskey unless it has been in the number of drunken fathers, sons and brothers, poverty stricken families, broken hearts and desolate homes—Madison Record.

Henry M. Flagler is going to erect a magnificent building in St. Augustine for a club of the railway branch of the Y. M. C. A. The building is to be equipped with all the improvements of the modern club building, bowling alley, swimming pool, shower and tub baths, reading, reception and lecture rooms and a gymnasium, with sleeping rooms for transients. Provision will also be made for kitchen and dining hall. The building will cost, exclusive of grounds, more than $25,000.

About the Realm Tendered To the President's Daughter.

The sultan of Sulu, who sought to pay Miss Roosevelt, her distinguished father and this country, the greatest honor in his power, is monarch of 21,380 Mohammedan people, of whom 1,270 are civilized and 50,119 are savages, or "wild," as the United States census of the islands taken in 1903, puts it. In the archipelago are only sixteen white women and thirty-one white males, including children.

Sulu, the biggest island in the archipelago, has almost exactly the same area as New York city. Henry Savage Landor, whom the sultan received, thus describes him: "The sultan's attire was not impressive. He wore a white turban with a pendant fringe and over his left shoulder and a short, violet zouave (jacket) with a double row of gold buttons in front and some embroidery upon the shoulders. His trousers were tight-fitting and held up by a simple Kamar band of Japanese pattern. Perhaps the richly cold embroidered slippers distracted the observer's attention a good deal from the sultan's small, fox-marked face, with its sunken, half-olive eyes and prominent fleshy lips adorned by a small drooping mustache."

Of the women, Landor writes: "Sulu women, unlike others, are submissive, considerate and, as local beauty goes, fairly good-looking, with great, big expressive eyes set in flabby white-lipped faces. They own terrible mouths, with teeth blackened and dirty-looking—New York World.

Capt. James A. Lowe of Key West, while drunk, shot his wife and then turned the pistol on himself. Both are in critical condition. Lowe had attempted to kill his wife on several previous occasions when intoxicated.

O. O. Harrison, a white man of St. Augustine, has been fined $25 and costs for shooting a quail. A few doses of justice judiciously administered by the judiciary throughout the state would tend to awaken greater respect for our game laws.

Three hundred cigar makers in the factory of M. Stachelberg & Co., of Tampa, struck work on Saturday because the proprietor refused to allow the factory reader to read an alleged anarchist paper called Tierra, published in Havana. The men claimed the reader had a right to read anything printed and when this was refused the whole force of 300 men quit.

The steamship Peconic, bound from Philadelphia for New Orleans with coal, was capsized in the terrible gale of Sunday night 40 miles off Amelia Island. Twenty of the crew of 22 went down with the vessel. The other two, an Italian and a Spaniard, reached Amelia Beach in one of the steamer's life boats, and are telling awful tales of hardship.

Isaac Cooper will be executed today for the murder of Marshal Bowman of Punta Gorda some three years ago. The hanging will take place at Arcadia. And it will more than likely take place as the governor is away on a pleasure trip and the pardon board and supreme court have washed their hands of the case. Cooper's execution ought to make would-be murderers pause before they shoot. But will it?

Geo. W. Leonard a pioneer settler and leading citizen of Hastings is dead at the Hastings Hospital, St. Augustine. Mr. Leonard was walking in a pasture near his home after dark when he stumbled over a cow. The animal in its fright hurried to get to its feet and in so doing threw Mr. Leonard in the air, and he fell to the ground striking on his head. The doctors, his wife was weeping and death was due to paralysis. Besides his interests at Hastings he was associated with a brother in the commission business in Boston.

THE DOCTOR KNOWS.

He is Not Deceived by the Story His Patient Tells Him.

It was late, the doctor's patients had either passed away or were sleeping, and he was sitting with a number of his acquaintances in a corner of the club room.

"It's a strenuous life we lead," droned the man of medicine, "with the grim side turned up against us as a rule, but now and then we get a laugh out of it—a laugh with the lid on, of course; we can't afford to show we're amused. I often wonder," he went on genially, "why some of you chaps ever send for a physician. You don't tell him the truth once in twenty times. You're in a bad way and you're sorry, and to hear you talk I'd think your mouths were cold storage boxes for butter. You suspect that lobster or a rich sauce you ate day before yesterday is at the bottom of the trouble. You know what's curled up in you, and you're frightened out of a year's growth for fear I'll learn."

"Accordingly," instead of taking me into your confidence, you tell me an impossible story. And if I cross examine you closely and hedge you in, you'll reluctantly admit that you've been somewhat indiscreet. You smoked four cigars Thursday and took six drinks. Doesn't it ever occur to you that I know by your flutters that you smoked from breakfast to bed and took sixteen drinks and six more for good measure?"

"If I were to believe you and dose you for your ailments as you describe them you'd never get well. Now and then I have to give you strychnine and ulroglycerin to restore the action of the heart, and to listen to you I might conclude that you'd had too much pink ice at a children's party."

"As I hinted, we doctors get some fun out of it, but what do you do it for? We were not always doctors, we haven't always taken the best care of ourselves, and we're not fools!"—Providence Journal.

Cataract Cannot Be Cured.

With LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease, Cataract is blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. The Cataract Cure, taken internally, acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. In this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonic known, combined with the best blood purifier, and acts directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing cataract. See for testimonials true. Sold by DR. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Hold by Druggists. The Family Pills are the best.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

Edited by Palatka Union.

FOUNDED 1880.

A prominent New York liquor dealer said not long ago: "I am against any law that interferes with my business." This shows the true position of the liquor men.

The Indianapolis News says it is estimated that one-third of all the saloons in that city are owned and controlled by breweries.

Does drink pauperize? The factories of Kewanee, Ill., pay out $36,000 a week. The saloons of that place deposit $24,000 a week in the banks. This is the kind of a town where the wives take in washing, the children are in rags, and tradesmen cannot collect their bills.

The man who votes for license ought to be willing that his own son should die a drunkard. The open saloon, which his vote helps to establish, he knows will ensure the death of somebody's boy; why should it not be in the eternal oblivion, his own child?—California Voice.

The experience of life insurance companies has taught them that the so-called "moderate drinker" is a very rare specimen and in self defense the companies have instructed their medical examiners to look with grave suspicion on those making this claim. Alcohol is a poison which attacks the nerve cells of the higher cerebral centers causing a weakening of will power and a blunted moral sense.

A well-known German doctor in one of Vermont's cities bore the following testimony to the liquor traffic under license: "Last year I could collect $200 per month. This year I collect $20. It is all going for whisky."

FOR $2,000 DAMAGES.

Another woman is trying the effect of a lawsuit upon the saloon, as a more hopeful means of getting rid of the saloon. If the saloon-keeper is not satisfied with the result of his lawsuit, it is to that the appeal must be made. Mrs. George Tallman, of Lead, South Dakota, whose husband was shot and killed by George Northam in the Cotton and Andrews' saloon, recently brought suit against the proprietor for two thousand dollars damages. She claimed her husband bought his liquor in the saloon.

MORAL SANITATION AS AN ANTIDOTE FOR MURDER.

By HANS VON SMACH.

According to the census statistics murders in the United States have more than quadrupled during the past few years.

Verily, laws against homicide do not appear to be enforced. Would it not be better to remove these demoralizing laws prohibiting murder? Laws which multiply murders, instead of reducing them, and which only provoke corruption and hypocrisy? It is useless to attempt this absurd interference with the personal liberty of the people to murder each other, as these unmeaning statistics show. Better enact reasonable laws restricting the sale of alcoholic liquors with a high license fee for the school fund. Of course it would be better if the people would not murder each other, but people in all countries have always murdered each other and always will. It is therefore better to regulate the sale of liquor and minimize the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders will be all committed by the best class of people and at reasonable hours. No murders should be allowed on Sundays or after eleven o'clock at night. Murders should be allowed only in the morning, and the number of murders of minors and lunatics should be prohibited. A wife should be allowed to restrain a murderer from killing her husband if said husband be her sole support. Folks who attempt the impossible feat of minimizing the evils thereof by a vigorous restrictive law in which the murders